3d and 4th Avenues. If you come by the cars, you will land in the Fourth Avenue, ~~t~~ near 27th street. Come down Fourth avenue in a horse car (or on foot, if you please—it is not a long walk), to Twelfth street—turn to the left, eastward, toward Third Avenue. Our house is on the right (South) side of the street, two doors beyond the church.
If you come by the Norwich boat, you will land at foot of Vestry street; go up the river a little to Canal street, follow that street (it is a wide one—you can't mistake
it) across Broadway to Centre street, at which point take Fourth Avenue car up to Twelfth St.—turn to the right, & find the house as directed above. Yours faithfully, Oliver Johnson.

Oct. 16, 1861

I would, for special reasons, love to have you here on Saturday, for I am then less busy than on almost any other working day of the week, and if the weather happens to be good, it will be the very day of all others to visit our beautiful Park. It is concert day there, when the Park is filled with splendid carriages, elegant horses, &c. Pray stretch a point, and leave home either Friday morning or evening. But if you can't do this, I hope you will come by the cars on Saturday, for the Norwich boat is sometimes quite late, and as we live well up town, there will hardly be time to hear Beecher, if you should wish to do so, in the forenoon. or any body else, of course, I make all these suggestions with entire freedom, not wishing you to inconvenience yourself to comply with them. Only if you can come a little sooner, since you are to depart earlier than I expected, I shall be very glad.

Our house is Mrs. Lavin's, 90 East Twelfth St., between

3d and 4th Avenues. If you
come by the cars, you will land in the Fourth Avenue, ~~at~~ near 27th street. Come down Fourth
avenue in a horse car (or on foot,
if you please—it is not a long walk),
to Twelfth street—turn to the
left, eastward, toward Third Avenue. Our house is on the right (South) side of the street,
two doors beyond the Church.
If you come by the Norwich
boat, you will land at foot of Vestry
street; go up the river a little to
Canal street, follow that street (it is a wide one—you can't mistake
it) across Broadway to Centre
street, at which point take Fourth
Avenue car up to Twelfth St.—turn
to the right & find the house as directed above. Yours faithfully,

Oliver Johnson.

Oct. 16, 1861